To whom it may concern.

I have known Pawan Prakash since August 2011. During this time he has been working in our Architectural Studio as a full time Assistant Architect (from August 2011 till to date).

I have found him to be an intelligent person with good analytical abilities. He has been part of our team for a couple of projects that are large in magnitude and are complex designs. While working on these projects, Pawan has shown a rare sense of responsibility and sincerity.

A mature and balanced person, he has the ability to work well and responsibly on his own and with others as a team. He has exhibited an ability to bring his analytical thinking to bear on his work. During the time that we interacted closely, I found him to be a very civil young man of refined sensibilities.

I wish him all the best for his future endeavours.
