- (c) It prohibits any invitation to the public to subscribe for any shares in, or debentures of the company. Provided that where two or more persons hold one or more shares in the company jointly, they shall, for the purposes of this definition, be treated as a single member.
- (d) It prohibits any invitation and acceptance of the deposits from persons other than its members, directors or their relatives.

SHARE CAPITAL

- 4. The Authorized Share Capital of the Company is Rs. 1,50,00,000/- (Rs. One Croree Fifty Lacs only) divided into 15,00,000 (Fifteen Lacs) equity shares of Rs.10/- (Rs. Ten) each.
- 5. Subject to rules and restrictions in the Companies Act, 1955 the Company shall have the power to increase or reduce the capital and to divide the share capital into several classes with rights, privileges or conditions as may be determined and to consolidate or sub divide or reorganize the shares and to vary such rights as may be determined in accordance with the regulations of the Company. The Company may issue preference shares that shall, or at the option of the Company shall be, liable to be redeemed, subject to the provisions of the Companies Act, 1956.

6. Subject to the provisions of the Act and these Articles the shares shall be under the control of the Directors who may allot or otherwise dispose of the same to such persons in such proportions and on such terms and conditions and either at a premium or at par a discount and at such times as they may from time to time think fit and proper.
7. The Directors may allot and issue shares in the capital of the company as payment or part payment for any property, goods or machinery supplied, sold or transferred or for services rendered to the company in or about the formation or promotion of the company or the conduct of its business and any shares so allotted may be issued as fully paid up or as partly paid up shares.

TRANSFER AND TRANSMISSION OF SHARES

8. A share may be transferred whether for consideration either in cash or in kind or otherwise by a shareholder or any other person entitled to transfer the same to any other shareholder selected by the transferor or to his wife or any of his heirs or lineal male ascendants or descendants of any shareholder. No shareholder will be entitled to transfer his shares or any portion thereof to any person other than those mentioned above.
9. Subject to the restrictions laid down in these articles, the share of the company shall be transferred by the holders of shares only with the consent of the Board in writing. The Board, on being informed by a member by a letter intimating his desire to sell a part or whole of his holding, shall circulate copies of such letter among the share-holders of the company asking them to offer to purchase the shares at their fair value. In case none of the shareholders of the Company are prepared to purchase the same, the shares may be transferred to a persons who is not a member, selected by the transferor and approved by the Board as on whom it is desirable in the interest of the company to admit the membership .
10. In case any difference arises between the proposing transferor and the purchasing member as to the fair value of shares, the Auditors of the company shall on the application of either party certify in writing the same which in their opinion is the fair value and such sum shall be deemed to be the fair value and in so certifying the Auditors shall be considered as experts and not as arbitrators and accordingly the Indian Arbitration Act, 1940 shall not apply.
11. Subject to the provision of section 111 of the Act, the Board of Directors may refuse to register any transfer of shares
 - (a) Where the company has a lien on the share, and
 - (b) The Directors may by resolution, refuse, and registration of any transfer of shares to a person whom they do not approve. If the Directors refuse to register transfer of a share, they shall within two months of the date on which the application for transfer was lodged with the company, give to the transferee and the transferor notice of the refusal.
12. The executors or administrators or the holder of a succession certificate issued in respect of the shares of a deceased member (not being one of several joint holders) shall be the only person whom the company shall recognize as having any title to the shares registered in the name of such member and in case of the death of any or more of the joint holder of any registered shares the survivor /survivors shall be the only person or persons recognized by the company as having any any title or interest in such shares but nothing herein contained shall be taken to release the estate of a deceased joint holder from any liability on shares held by him jointly with any other person. Provided nevertheless that in any case where the Directors in their absolute discretion, think fit, it shall be lawful for the Directors to dispense with the production of probate or letters of Administration or a Succession Certificate or such other legal representation upon such terms (if any) as to indemnify or otherwise as the Directors may consider desirable.

GENERAL MEETING

13. All General Meetings other than Annual General Meeting shall be called Extraordinary General Meeting.
14. Subject to the provisions of Section 169 of the Act. The Board may whenever it thinks fit, convene an Extra-ordinary General Meeting.
15. Save as therein otherwise provided, two persons personally present shall be a quorum for a general meeting and no business shall be transacted at any General Meeting unless a quorum is present at the time when the meeting proceeds to business.
16. Subject to any rights or restrictions for the time being attached to any shares on a show of hands every member present in person shall have one vote. The voting right of every member present in person or by proxy shall be in proportion to his share in the paid up capital of the Company. No member personally present shall be entitled to vote on a show of hands unless such member is body corporate present by a representative duly authorised under Section 187 of the Act.
17. No member shall be entitled to be present or to vote on any question at any General Meeting or be reckoned in a quorum whilst any call or other sum shall be due and payable to the Company in respect of any of the shares of such member.
18. General Meeting shall be convened on not less than three days notice to the members and the auditors of the Company, specifying the place, day and hour of the meeting with a statement of the business to be transacted at the meeting. The accidental omission to give any such notice to or non-receipt of any such notice by any member shall not invalidate the proceedings of the general meeting.

A general meeting may, with the consent of all the members, be called on by a shorter notice or in such manner as the members think fit.
19. An explanatory statement in respect of special business under Section 173 of the Act need not be annexed or sent with any notice of any general meeting.

50. The Directors shall have power to amend the audited accounts of the company of any financial years which have or have not been laid before the Company in a general meeting if they consider it necessary and in the interest of the Company. The members of the Company shall along with the comments of the auditors of the Company thereon lay all such amendments before the company in a general meeting held for the first time after such amendment for consideration and approval.
51. Subject to the provisions of Section 209 A of the Act, the Board shall from time to time determine whether and to what extent and at what times and places and under what conditions or regulations the accounts and books of the Company or any of them shall be open to the inspection of members not being Directors.
52. No member (not being a Director) or any other person shall have any right of inspecting any account books or documents of the Company except as conferred by law or authorised by the Board or by the Company in general meeting.
53. Auditors shall be appointed and their duties and power shall be regulated in accordance with the provisions of Section 224 to 231 of the Act.

DIVIDENDS AND RESERVES

54. The Company in General Meeting may subject to the provisions of Section 205 of the Act declare dividends, but no dividend shall exceed the amount recommended by the Directors.
55. The board may from time to time pay to the members such interim dividends as appear to the Board to be justified by the profit of the Company.
56. The Directors may deduct from any dividend payable to any member on or in respect of a share all sums of money, if any, presently payable by him to the Company on account of calls or otherwise.
57. The Board may, before recommending any dividend, set aside out of the profits of the company such sums as it thinks fit as reserve or reserves which shall, at the discretion of the Board, be applicable, for any purpose to which the profits of the company may properly be applied. The Board may also carry forward any profits which setting them may think prudent not to divide, without aside as a reserve.
58. No dividend shall bear interest against the Company.

COMMON SEAL

59. The Directors shall provide for the safe custody of the Seal. The Seal of the Company shall not be affixed to any instrument except by the authority of the Board or of a committee of the Board authorised by it in that behalf and except in the presence of one Director or the Managing Director or such other person as the Board may appoint for the purpose who shall sign every instrument to which the seal of the company is so affixed in his presence.

SECRECY

60. Every Director, Manager, Auditor, Trustee, Member of a committee, Officer, Servant, Agent, Accountant, or other person employed in the business of the company shall observe strict secrecy respecting all transactions of the company with the customers and the state of accounts with individuals and in the matters relating thereto and shall not reveal any of the matters which may come to his knowledge in the discharge of his duties except when required to do so by the Directors as such or by any meeting or by a Court of law or by the person to whom such matters relate and except so far as may be necessary in order to comply with any of the provisions in these presents contained.
61. No Member shall be entitled to visit or inspect any works of the Company without the permission of the Directors to the require discovery of or any information respecting any details of the Company's trading, or any matter which is or may be in the nature of a trade secret, mystery of trade, secrete process or any other matter which may relate to the conduct of the business of the Company and which in the opinion of the Directors, it would be inexpedient in the interest of the Company to disclose.

WINDING UP

62. If the Company shall be wound up either voluntarily or otherwise, the surplus assets, if any shall be applied first in repayment of the capital paid up on the shares and the excess, if any, shall be distributed amongst the members in proportion to their number of shares held by them respectively at the commencement of the winding up.
63. If the assets available for distribution shall be insufficient to repay the whole of the paid up capital then such assets shall be distributed in such a way so that as nearly as may be the losses shall be borne by the members in proportion to their capital paid up or ought to have been paid up at the commencement of winding up on the shares held by them respectively,

INDEMNITY

64. Every Director, Manager, Secretary or officer of the Company or any person (whether an officer of the Company or not) employed by the Company and any person appointed as auditor shall be indemnified out of the funds of the Company against all liabilities incurred by him as such Director, Manager, Secretary, Officer, Employee or Auditor in defending any proceedings civil or criminal in which judgment is in his favour or in which he is acquitted or in connection with any application under Section 633 of the Act in which relief is granted to him by the court.
