SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES & NOTES ON ACCOUNTS

A. SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

1. Basis of Preparation of Financial Statements

The self-rancial statements have been prepared to comply in all material respects with the Volden Accounting Standard by Companies Accounting Standards Rules, 2006 and the relevant provisions of the Companies Act, 2013. The Financial Statements have been prepared under the historical cost convention on an accrual basis, except for dividend from Shares and Mutual fund Units, and on the accounting principles of going concern.

2. Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted principle requires in progression to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amount of assets and liabilities and disclosure of Contingent Liabilities on the date of the financial statements and the reported amount of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Although these estimates are based upon management's best knowledge of current events and actions, actual results could differ from these estimates.

3. Fixed Assets

Fixed assets are stated at cost. All cost attributable to bring the fixed assets to a warder a condition is capitalized.

4. Depreciation

The Company has not started its operation so no depreciation has been charged.

5. Impairment of Assets

An asset is treated as impaired when the carrying cost of assets exceeds its recoverable value. An impairment loss is charged for when asset is identified as impaired. The impairment loss recognized in prior accounting period is reversed if there has been a change in the estimate of recoverable amount.

A previously recognized impairment loss is increased or reversed depending on changes in circumstances. However, the carrying value after reversal is not increased beyond the carrying value that would have prevailed by charging usual depreciation if there was no impairment.

Investments

Investments that are intended to be held for more than a year from the date of acquisitions are classified as Long Term Investments and are carried at cost. Thus, Quoted Investments are carried at cost. Current Investments are stated at cost or fair market value whichever is lower.

7. Inventories

There is no inventory.

5. Revenue Recognition

Income & Expenditure are recognized on accrual basis and provision is made for all known expenses.
