Most Respectfully Sheweth :-

- 1/ That the petition of the petitioner have not been filed voluntarily but under the threat of opposite party.
- 2/ Thatthe above named objector is the son of petitioner and O.P. is younger brother of the objector.
- 3/ That it is fact that the petitioner belong to village - village Singhpur; P.S. Dumri, Distt. Gumla where the petitioner share of land is about not more than 3.00 acres and the enquiry report in Para 15 has wrongly been submitted by the K.C. of Gumla Anchal without verifying the documents of Dumri Anchal only to please the opposite Party. A vague report without mentioning Khata No. and plot No. of village Singhpur has been submitted by the Karamchari of Gumla Anchal

That the objector's father saved some amount from the ancestoral property of village Singpur and his service and also maternal grand father of the objector help the petition er through money to purchase and built a house on the land at village Dumartoli, which is adjacent of Gumla town to educate son and daughter. After purchase the petitioner settle at Dumartoli where opposite party and objector lived to gether with sister. The sister of the objector is also emplo yed in sub-Division Office, Gumla and onjector got his job in Railway department but the Opposite party got some bad habit and as such he became idle who persuated the petition—petitioner by force to execute the standing house and bari in his name.

that it is false to allege in para 6 of the petitioner that funeral right of the mother of the objector had been performed by opposite party but it is a fact that it is the petitioner who performed the last rights and also objector helped his father through money. The petitioner is at present an old man of about eighty years and unable to see to see and hear properly.

by the petitioner voluntarily but it is the opposite perty who managed to file this case under the threat. The objector lived out side and occasionally visits his father and when the objector asked his father about this case the petitioner told the objector about the fact that he has not filed this case willingly and the objector is confident that if the court asked the petitioner in absence of opposite party, the petition petitioner mustbrought this fact to the court that he has not filed the case voluntarily.

7/ That opposite party filed this case through the petitioner illegaly only to by pass the right and title of the objector.

It is, therefore, prayed that the permission case be rejected.

For this kindness the objector shall ever pray.
