Sub: - Regarding Applicability of CTE/CTO.

Sir,

With reference to the subject noted above and your letter dt- 19-07-2022, the undersigned has gone through the manufacturing process of your plant. As informed, your plant will be engaged in manufacturing/assembly of LED bulbs/tube lights/spot light which will be dry process. As per classification of Industry, this type of activity falls under Sl. No.-12 of white category which is exempted from obtaining CTE/CTO from the Board. This exemption is applicable only as far as the process is dry. However, required certificates from other Departments shall be obtained.

This is being issued on the request made by you.

Yours faithfully,

J.P. Singh
